About Us:

DigiSpice Technologies Ltd. is a leading player in the FinTech and Digital Platforms and Solutions Industries. It has three distinct businesses, FinTech Business (Spice Money), Digital Telecom Services and Digital Enterprise Business (Korero Platforms).

Spice Money is a leading and profitable rural FinTech player in India. Using its robust technology infrastructure, Spice Money offers various financial services including enabling people to transact with their bank accounts at a nearby Kirana store in a quick, convenient, and cost-effective manner through its vast network of over 500,000+ Adhikaris, the contact points for the consumers, across small towns and villages in 700+ districts. Besides cash withdrawal, deposit and remittance, the consumers access multiple services like bill payments, travel ticketing, insurance, government services, etc.

In the Digital Telecom Services, the company offers products and services to telecom operators to deliver audio, video and other multimedia content over the internet through adaptive user experience, state of the art content management systems and strong content delivery mechanism for a rich digital experience.

With the Digital Enterprise Services business, DigiSpice Technologies offers a CPaaS delivery model for enterprises to seamlessly integrate their own and third party applications and enable them to add real-time communication capabilities such as SMS, Voice, email, WhatsApp, push notification, web notification and in-app notification. It helps enterprises enhance their CX with the help of adoption of new age technologies, digital transformation and automation.
